

January 21, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Duane Cyrus
(336) 540-8882
cyart4@me.com
www.cyrusartproduction.com

Cyrus Art Production LLC
Presents

The Vital Grace Project—2012 Showcase
February 18, 2012 at 8pm
Greensboro Cultural Arts Center—Music Hall
200 North Davie Street, Greensboro, NC 27401

Cyrus Art Production continues its commitment to high quality performing arts presentation. Led by associate professor Duane Cyrus from the School of Music, Theatre and Dance at UNCG, The Vital Grace Project—2012 Showcase is an all-new lineup presented at the Greensboro Cultural Arts Center on Saturday, February 18th at 8 pm in the Music Hall. Reflecting Cyrus Art Production's mission of building inclusive communities and supporting the development of young artists, this exciting performance comes to the Triad area for one night only! The Vital Grace Project—2012 Showcase is an unprecedented evening celebrating Black History Month and African American culture with a stellar lineup featuring some of America's most successful music and dance artists!

The Vital Grace Project—2012 Showcase will feature tap sensation Maurice Chestnut who was recruited by tap master Savion Glover, to join the national touring company of the Tony Award winning Bring In 'Da Noise, Bring In 'Da Funk and continues to work with Glover on international and national tours. Chestnut's high profile engagements have included the JVC Jazz Festival, the Playboy Jazz Festival, The Apollo Theater, and Birdland, as well as appearances at Carnegie Hall and throughout Europe.

RAHBI

Fascinating singer, Rahbi will return to Greensboro after wowing the audience in last year's Vital Grace showcase! He has opened for Erykah Badu and is gaining attention for his unique vocal style. UNCG students will present workshop choreography by Jeffrey Page, an Emmy-nominated, and MTV's 2011 Video Music Award winning choreographer. His works include MTV award winning choreography for Beyonce's riveting smash hit, Run The World (Girls) and choreography for the Fox hit series, So You Think You Can Dance. Page will appear at this event. Featured local performances include, Location of Spirit by Duane Cyrus, set to live vocal performance of traditional Spirituals and Gospel.

PAGE

The Vital Grace Project brings in top-notch professional performing artists to mingle with Greensboro's finest talent and includes performances and outreach programming activities throughout the year, made possible through support from the United Arts Council of Greater Greensboro and The School of Music, Theatre and Dance at UNCG.

Tickets: $10 Advance sale. $15 General & $12 Student/Sr./Child at the door

